PDAS Teacher Orientation
Delivered in a whole new way... ONLINE!

“I noticed all my answers would be read by my administrators. I answered very thoroughly and accurately. Again, the training was wonderful and I learned SO MUCH! Thanks.”

Texas Teacher, December (2009)

PDAS teacher orientation training is required for teachers new to your district.

Affordable
The online version costs only $31 per participant. The average cost of a current face-to-face delivery model is $225 per day per participant, when you consider the daily rate for the teacher, substitutes, trainer and facility.

Convenient
There’s no need to pull teachers from the classroom or herd them into a gymnasium or auditorium. Online learning eliminates or reduces travel time and expense. Teachers can login and take the course whenever it’s convenient for them, regardless of where they live or work, or when they join the staff. In addition, teachers can refer back to the content for an entire year. This is especially useful right before the classroom observation.

Trackable
Administrators can know their teachers better. The online version assesses learning, measures progress, and reports results via online reports that are downloadable in a variety of formats. Responses by the teachers will help administration identify strengths and areas of need for each participant.

“Thank you for making this course available. It has made my life and the principals’ lives so much easier at this time of year!”
